Miller Wins Challenge in Mixed Bonspiel

"Father" Dial, veteran curler, turns in some classy performances to win the second event.

The annual mixed bonspiel which started Tuesday noon (last week) was concluded Saturday night. S. A. Miller and Bob Green were the finalists in the challenge, and "Father" Dial and George Fowler were the finalists in the second event; the games going to S. A. Miller and B. H. (Father) Dial.

The early threat of mild weather faded from the picture Wednesday morning when the temperature steadily lowered, and for the balance of the week remained cold enough for good ice, but not too cold for comfort.

Play opened in a qualifying round, the winners going to the top section of the challenge and the losers to the lower section. Charts showing the games played in the challenge and second event are given on page 2.

Alberta Second in Hog Marketing

Alberta still holds its place as second among provinces with respect to total marketings of hogs, according to final figures just released from the Dominion Live Stock Branch on live stock marketings for 1934. Last year Alberta again marketed one-third of the total hog marketings for the Dominion, the figures being for Canada 3,006,111 head and for Alberta 1,012,827 head. Ontario is still the leading province in this respect. The figures show a slight reduction from 1933.

Alberta's total marketings of cattle and calves were 241,160 head, or 16½% of Canada's total marketings, which were 1,487,132 head. Of sheep

Homestead Entries

Total homestead entries in Alberta during 1934 were 3,039, compared with 3,580 in 1933, according to figures released by the provincial lands department. There were 2,614 first homesteads compared with 2,907 in 1934.

Rev. E. F. Kemp and Mr. Harry Austen left this morning for Drumheller where they will attend a two-day session of the Drumheller Presbytery.

Alberta marketed a total of 205,144 head, or 24% of Canada's total which was 822,592 head.

Mr. R. J. Scott, School Inspector, is in Medicine Hat on an inspection tour, which will keep him in the city for two weeks.

Some entrancing photographs were taken by residents of Oyen last week, of trees heavily coated with hoar frost. Second avenue with its rows of poplars glistening in the sunlight was a beautiful sight.

Tomorrow is Valentine Day. Valentines apparently are not confined to highly colored lithographs with quaint references to hearts and love. We got two very practical "valentines" today when two of our subscribers handed in their subscriptions.

Look at the address label on your paper. Maybe you would like to send a valentine too.

Work is being done this week on the five miles of highway between Oyen and Benton corners, with a view to opening same for travel. Robert McLaren, who left his car in Sibbald early in January, after being caught in a storm, made the trip to Oyen today. While he managed to get through, the highway is not yet in good condition.
